School Uniform Policy

Date	Review Date	Coordinator	Nominated Director
21.05.17	21.05.18	Kirsty Crosby	Joan Wilkes

We believe this policy should be a working document that is fit for purpose, represents the school ethos, enables consistency and quality across the school and is related to the following legislation:

- Health and Safety at Work Act 1974
- Education Reform Act 1988
- Education Act 1996
- School Standards and Framework Act 1998
- Human Rights Act 1998
- Learning and Skills Act 2000
- Special Educational Needs and Disability Act 2001
- Equality Act 2010
- Education Act 2011

The following documentation is also related to this policy:

- School Uniform in Multiracial Schools (NFER)
- School Uniform Guidance (DfE)

We have decided to have a school uniform for pupils as we feel it plays an important part in supporting positive behaviour and discipline, developing the ethos of the school and supporting teaching and learning.

We acknowledge that we have an obligation under the Human Rights Act 1998 to protect and to accommodate the rights of individuals to display their religious or cultural dress. Any request based on social or cultural grounds for pupils to wear other items of clothing, other than or in addition to the specified school uniform, will be considered.

We are aware that a greater number of pupils are questioning their gender identity than in the past. Therefore, we are introducing a gender neutral uniform which will cater for those pupils who do not match clothing to gender as well as those who do not.

We wish to work closely with the School Council and to hear their views and opinions as we acknowledge and support Article 12 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child that children should be encouraged to form and to express their views.

We as a school community have a commitment to promote equality. Therefore, an equality impact assessment has been undertaken and we believe this policy is in line with the Equality Act 2010.

LIBRA School

We believe it is essential that this policy clearly identifies and outlines the roles and responsibilities of all those involved in the procedures and arrangements that is connected with this policy.

Aims

- To ensure pupils wear school uniform in order to support positive behaviour and discipline, to develop the school ethos and to support effective teaching and learning.

Responsibility for the Policy and Procedure

Role of the Directors

The Directors have:

- delegated to the Headteacher the responsibility of implementing and maintaining this policy;
- delegated powers and responsibilities to the Headteacher to ensure all school staff and visitors to the school are aware of and comply with this policy;
- responsibility for ensuring that the school complies with all equalities legislation;
- nominated a designated Equalities Manager to ensure that appropriate action will be taken to deal with all prejudice related incidents or incidents which are a breach of this policy;
- responsibility for ensuring funding is in place to support this policy;
- responsibility for ensuring this policy and all policies are maintained and updated regularly;
- responsibility for ensuring all policies are made available to parents;
- the responsibility of involving the School Council in the development, approval, implementation and review of this policy;
- make effective use of relevant research and information to improve this policy;
- responsibility for the effective implementation, monitoring and evaluation of this policy

Role of the Headteacher

The Headteacher will:

- delegate responsibility on its endorsement to the Senior Management Team;
- ensure all school staff, pupils and parents are aware of and comply with this policy;
- ask all staff to report any pupil who does not comply with this policy;
- impose sanctions for non compliance with school uniform;
- write to parents of pupils abusing this policy asking for their support before any further sanctions are imposed
- process any complaints received in the appropriate way as stated in the school's complaints policy;
- make effective use of relevant research and information to improve this policy;

Sanctions

We will take appropriate action if any pupil does not adhere to this policy. But first we will discuss with the pupil and the parent the reason why in order to establish a way forward. Under no circumstance will any pupil be sent home for non-compliance with this policy without first informing the parent. In the event that a pupil arrives at school without their uniform, they will be asked to work in a room on their own so as not to antagonize the other children. If the child then agrees to wear the school uniform they can re-join normal lessons.

Complaints

We have in place clear procedures to deal with any complaint made against the school or individuals connected with it. We take any complaint seriously and we deal with them professionally following set procedures. (See Complaints policy)

Raising Awareness of this Policy

We will raise awareness of this policy via:

- the School Handbook/Prospectus
- the school website
- the Staff Handbook
- meetings with parents such as introductory, transition and parent-teacher consultations
- school events
- meetings with school staff
- communications with home such as daily report cards and newsletters at end of term
- information displays in the main school entrance

Training

All school staff:

- have equal chances of training, career development and promotion
- receive training on this policy on induction which specifically covers:
 - All aspects of this policy
 - Physical Education
 - Swimming
 - Educational Visits
 - Equal opportunities
- receive periodic training so that they are kept up to date with new information
- receive equal opportunities training on induction in order to improve their understanding of the Equality Act 2010 and its implications

Equality Impact Assessment

LIBRA School

Under the Equality Act 2010 we have a duty not to discriminate against people on the basis of their age, disability, gender, gender identity, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief and sexual orientation.

This policy has been equality impact assessed and we believe that it is in line with the Equality Act 2010 as it is fair, it does not prioritise or disadvantage any pupil and it helps to promote equality at this school.

Monitoring the Effectiveness of the Policy

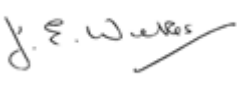

Annually (or when the need arises) the effectiveness of this policy will be reviewed by the coordinator, the Headteacher and the nominated Director and the necessary recommendations for improvement will be made to the Directors

The practical application of this policy will be reviewed annually or when the need arises by the coordinator, the Headteacher and Directors.

A statement of the policy's effectiveness and the necessary recommendations for improvement will be presented to the Directors for further discussion and endorsement. (See Policy Evaluation)
